This event will feature 10 different obstacles on a course that riders must navigate. All obstacles are designed with varying degrees of difficulty throughout the course. This event is a Buckle challenge series. Riders will accrue points and awards at each individual competition. The championship course will be hosted at the Hendersonville Mounted Police Training Facility, where winners in both Novice and Open will win a buckle for their efforts in becoming the overall champion. Come prepared to enjoy beautiful venues, have fun, encounter obstacles both in the arena, and natural setting, and more importantly participate in a safe environment. Information for this event can be obtained by visiting the R&M Stables website at www.randmstableshendersonville.com
